

A NEW JOURNEY
AN ANTHOLOGY OF
INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES & RESEARCH
VOL. I

CENTRE FOR INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES
& RESEARCH

SISTER NIVEDITA UNIVERSITY, KOLKATA

Edited By: Bula Bhadra and Chandni Basu

CONTENTS

Foreword.....

Acknowledgements.....

Author Details.....

Introduction-What Interdisciplinary Studies and Research Can Ensure?

Bula Bhadra.....

i. Nivedita and Jagadish Chandra Bose: A Reading of Mutual Travel and Influence

Gautam Basu and Sudipto Das.....

ii. Women Scientists! Are there any Perspectives and Reality?

Subhasis Mukhopadhyay.....

iii. Dr. Kadambini (Basu) Ganguly (1861-1923): The 19th Century Doctor Who Broke the Glass Ceiling

Chitra Mandal.....

iv. Modern Science and Colonial India: From the Perspective of a Scientist

Gautam Gangopadhyay.....

v. Decolonization of Science: A Case Against Parachute Transfer of Technology and Knowledge

Ashoke Ranjan Thakur.....

vi. Gender Issues: Academia vs. Private Enterprises

Suprakash Roy.....

vii. Our Language and Us

Aditi Ghosh.....

viii. Probing Intersectionality in Archaeology: A Few Thoughts Bishnupriya Basak
ix. The Manifestation of Bhagavata Purana in Bengal Terracotta Temples Shreela Basu
x. Impairment Disability and Society in India Nandini Ghosh.....
xi. Dance Movement Therapy for Wellbeing and Rehabilitation Dr. Sohini Chakraborty and Kolkata Sanved Team.....
xii. Climate Change and the Bigger Problem of Sustainable Development Anup Sinha.....
xiii. The Role of Rabindra Sangeet in the Formation of Culture and Society in India Anubha Sen.....
xiv. Potentialities and Predicaments of New Media Buroshiva Dasgupta
xv. Media Credibility: Issues and Challenges Uttam Sengupta.....
xvi. Exploring the 'Postcolonial Lens' Chandni Basu.....
xvii. Colonization and Decolonization of Knowledge: Looking Back, Moving Forward Bula Bhadra.....

