

School of HOSPITALITY & TOURISM

- Techno India IHM

ABOUT THE SCHOOL

The school believes in developing a sense of responsibility and a holistic approach within the student while focusing on a detailed structure of hospitality, hotels, catering, and other related aspects. The students are not just given intellectual education but also trained under industry specialists and mentors, which encourages their entrepreneurial ability. With an attractive curriculum, and multiple opportunities in the age of globalisation, the school intends to train promising, bright and vibrant young minds to help them secure a prestigious position in the contemporary market. The serene university environment coupled with extra-curricular activities provides students with unique experiences of comprehensive learning. The programs enhance their skills in various operational areas of hotels where they would be placed.
